

I oppose the weakening of the Indiana Privacy Act by the actions of the Consumer Bankers Association. I do not want my privacy interrupted by banks, credit card companies, telephone companies, etc. even if I do business with these companies.